Legendary summer buzz in the "festival HALL OF THE ALPS"

St. Moritz, the Nobel prize, high society place, located at 1,800 m altitude has been attracting famous people for 150 years both in the Oberengadin summer and in winter. Charlie Chaplin, George Clooney, Marlene Dietrich Tina Turner have all been here, as well as Richard Wagner for a therapy and Alfred Hitchcock for his honeymoon. St. Moritz has seen them all. Guests feel like stars in the Art Boutique Hotels Monopol: in the midst of events, in the best company, but still quite independently. The high quality culture of legendary hospitality has contributed to the "festival hall of the Alps" reputation.

The hotel is the best place to enjoy "perfectly normal luxury": located in the middle of the centre, with several opportunities for entertainment and relaxation.

„Enjoy St. Moritz and relax“ – this is the slogan of the hotel, attracting guests who would like to spend their holidays completely relaxed, in peace and fully pampered.

The Wellavista SPA on the sixth floor is the realm of pleasure and beauty with a Finnish and a bio sauna, a steam bath and a whirlpool with panorama offering massages, facial treatments, peelings, body shaping wraps and aromatherapies.

At 1800 m height, sport fans have full variety to choose from: at the opening of the season exclusive brands and sports car enthusiasts gather at the start of the British Classic Car Meeting. Bikers descend into the saddle at the Engadin in the Giro, the 11th Engadin bicycle marathon and the National Park Bike Marathon. Runners have three running races to compete in this summer and the lovers of horse riding have the opportunity to trot at the traditional, high level competitions such as the summer Concours Hippique, St. Moritz and the Longino CSI.
